MEAD QUARTERS, DEPT OF NEW MEXICO, SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 28, 1862.

No. 99.

By authority from the War Department, all troops hitherto composing the Column from California are attached to the Department of New Mexico.

All official communications, returns, reports, estimates etc., which heretofore have been required to be forwarded for the consideration and orders of the Communder of the Department of the Pacific, will be sent to these Head Quarters.

By Order of Brig. Gen'l Carleton, BRN. C. CUTLER, Captain and A. A. General.

HEAD QUARTERS, DEP'T. OF NEW MEXICO, FORT UNION, N. M. December 9, 1862.

General Orders

 The exigencies of the service require that the following towns, and all intermediate places form a Military District; viz:

Rayala, Agua Negra, Loma Parda, Sipillo, Las Vegas, Tecalote, Los Golondrinos, La Caeva, I.A Mora, Guadalepita, Barchey's Fort, Hatch's Rauch and Anton Chico. This District will be known as the Fort Union District, and will be unler the military control of the commander of Fort Union.

II.....Until farther orders, no American Citizen not a native of New Maxico will be pecunitted to leave this Department by the routes leading to Colorado Territory, or to the States, without a passport from these Head Quarters.

Br order of Brigadier General CARLETON:

BEN. C. CUTLER,

Captain and A. A. General.

HEAD QUARTERS, DEPT. OF NEW MEXICO, SANTA FE, N. M., December 15, 1862.

No. 103.

On the 26th of August, 1862, 2d Lieutenant G. S. Smorr, of company 22 d Golorado Volunteers, was detached from Fort Union, New Mexico, 1 forty five men of that company, to overtake and chastise the Indians for 70-bing a train on the Cimarron Route, of over one handred mules and borro-bing a train on the Cimarron Route, of over one handred mules and borro-bing a train on the Cimarron Route, of over one handred mules and borrow the company of the company

I forty five men of that company, to other account and mules and horroubing a trial on the Cimaron Route, of over one hundred mules and horses, and to recover the animals. He was gone on this sertice forty one degletwenty days of which time his mon were on half rations. He went into the heart of the Comanche and Kioway country, and forced the Indians to give an intest two of the stolon animals, and to promise not again to depredate upon our trains. Heat. Shoup marched several hundred miles while on this duty

In the month of November, 1862, Lieut. Shoup pursued a party of men on their way to Fort Smith, Arkansas, and captured them, three hundred and fifty miles out on the plains east of the settlements of New Mexico, and in the heart of the Comanche country.

The zeal, eaergy, perseverance and self desial, shown by this young gentleman, and by Sergeant Marvin and Corporal Allien of company '0,' 2d Gol-orado Volunteers, and the other resolute men of that Company, deserve this public notice, and are worthy the enalation of every officer and soldier in this Department.

By order of Brigadier General Carlators:

BEN. C. CUTLER.

Captain and A. A. General

